13 Pine Road, Chandler's Ford, SO53 1LQ

£1,095,000

A magnificent family home constructed in circa 1907 representing one of Chandler's Ford's grand old houses conveniently situated within Hiltingbury and the heart of Chandler's Ford and within walking distance to local shops the picturesque Hiltingbury lakes and schools to include Hiltingbury and Thornden. This impressive residence provides stunning accommodation arranged over three floors and outbuildings totals approximately 4,473sqft. The ceiling heights and scale of the rooms, most of which benefit from dual aspect windows, create an exceptional feeling of space with an impressive entrance hall leading to the main hallway and staircases to the first and second floors, together with three principal reception rooms, kitchen and utility room. On the first floor are four generous bedrooms and two bathrooms and to the second floor, two further spacious bedrooms and bathroom. The total plot extends to approximately 0.37 of an acre surrounding the property on all four sides. To the front the current owners built an impressive outbuilding housing a double garage and adjacent games room with a further loft room over. Homes of this style, character and distinction are rarely available in the area and it is our pleasure to bring it to the market for you at this time.
