100 Loveridge Way, Eastleigh, SO50 9PW

£195,000

Situated on Loveridge Way in Eastleigh, this well presented two bedroom first floor flat was built in 2003 and has been recently redecorated and recarpeted throughout. The property benefits from secure communal entrance access with the added convenience of a lift serving all floors, making it an ideal choice for a range of buyers. The accommodation enjoys a spacious sitting/dining room, providing a good sized living space with access onto the private balcony. The updated kitchen is also just off of the sitting room. There are two generous double bedrooms, with the main bedroom benefiting from an ensuite shower room. The property also has a separate family bathroom, with both bathrooms having been updated. Outside, the balcony provides a useful additional seating space, while the property also benefits from its convenient location within walking distance of Eastleigh town centre and Eastleigh Train Station. The location is particularly well suited to commuters, with the train station providing access towards Southampton, Winchester and London, while there is also easy access to the M3. Eastleigh town centre is close by, offering a wide range of shops, restaurants and everyday amenities. This is beautiful flat which is ready to move into with no forward chain.
