Morningside Norlands Drive, Otterbourne, SO21 2DT

£650,000

Situated in the sought after area of Otterbourne is this spacious three bedroom detached home, set on an impressive plot of approximately 0.3 of an acre. The property is well presented throughout, although would benefit from some general modernisation, giving the new owner an opportunity to make the home their own. The ground floor offers a good amount of living space, with a dining room opening into the family room and sitting room, creating a versatile area for family life. There is also a well proportioned kitchen, separate utility room and family bathroom. To the rear of the property is a lovely conservatory overlooking the garden providing a further reception space. Upstairs, there are three well proportioned bedrooms along with a separate WC. Outside, the property benefits from driveway parking to both sides of the house, providing ample space for several vehicles, together with a double garage. The rear garden is a particular feature, being a generous and private space mainly laid to lawn with established flower beds and shrubs. The location is also a real benefit with the property being located within Thornden School catchment and the number 1 bus route within walking distance providing regular access into Southampton and Winchester. A local shop is also nearby for everyday convenience. Otterbourne itself offers a village setting while remaining well placed for access to the surrounding towns and road networks.
